

Misbehaviour Consequences

Good behaviour is very important - for those who DO NOT follow the Eerde Code of Honour, we have the following steps in place:

Level 1:

EXAMPLE: Failing to turn in homework, unexcused lateness to any school event, mild to moderate disruptive behaviour during class or other school activities, minor cases of academic dishonesty, being unkind to others

First time:

Your teacher will talk to you, explaining why your conduct was inappropriate and issuing a warning. The teacher will log the incident on ManageBac, describing the behavior. A notification is automatically sent to the Tutor for reference.

Second time: Your teacher will talk to you again - you will get a second warning

Third time:

Moved to Level 2 - your Tutor and IB, IGCSE or IMYC Coordinator will be informed and you will be asked to attend a reflection session.

Level 2:

EXAMPLE: Failure to submit a summative assignment; moderate to serious disruptive behavior during class or other school activities; using abusive language towards another student or staff member, or otherwise acting with gross disrespect towards a student or a member of staff; bullying behaviour; unexcused absence from class; damaging school property; stealing or other forms of gross dishonesty (including serious academic dishonesty)

First time:

You will be referred directly to the IB, IGCSE or IMYC Coordinator, who will instruct you to attend a reflection session to reflect on your conduct. This will be logged on ManageBac.

Second time:

A conference will be held between the IB, IGCSE or IMYC Coordinator, your parents/guardian, and you to discuss your behaviour.

A letter will be sent to your parents explaining the issue in detail.

Third time: Moved to level 3

Level 3:

EXAMPLE: Violence against another student or a teacher; serious bullying, whether in person or on social media; smoking, drinking alcohol or use of drugs/ illegal substances other types of threatening conduct.

First time:

You will be suspended for a period of time to be determined by the Academic Director and IB, IGCSE or IMYC Coordinator. During the suspension you will write a letter to the staff, explaining why you should be readmitted to the school. The staff will then decide whether or not it is in the school's and your interests for you to be readmitted to school.

Second time: Permanent exclusion from the school.
